

MRS. WHARTON'S "HOUSE OF MIRTH"

Dramatization of the Popular
Novel Produces Literary Stir in New York.

"SAM HOUSTON" IS A FAILURE

Miss Allen, Having Married,
Will Retire From the Stage
After This Season.

NEW YORK, October 26.—Two women hit hard upon to theatrical distinction, and only one enjoying celebrity in fiction, provide the grounds of serious interest that are now in Broadway. The women are Miss Wharton and Mrs. Wharton. Their names are alike in the American mind, and the fact that both work in the same line of endeavor is a striking coincidence. Miss Wharton's play, "The House of Mirth," like the novel from which it is adapted, makes a brilliant study of a woman's life in the city of New York. It is a story of a woman who is a social success, but who is a failure in every other respect. The play is a masterpiece of dramatic art, and it is a pity that it is not more widely known.

For over thirty years, writes a gentleman in Los Angeles, "I have used Arbuckle's Coffee. Many times my family has tried other coffee only to come back to our old reliable, unchangeable Arbuckle's. No other coffee has this uniform never failing aroma, I care not at what price. I have often wished I could tell you this." Many other people have the same opinion Arbuckle's was the first roasted packaged coffee, and its sales exceed all the others put together. That it costs you less is due simply to our coffee business being so much greater than any competitor, in fact, it is larger than the next four largest firms in the world combined. We naturally can and actually do give better coffee in ARBUCKLE than anyone else can give for the price. Being the standard article it is sold at the narrowest margin of profit.

Some grocers will try to sell you instead loose coffee which the roaster is ashamed to sell in a package bearing his name.

Don't take it, neither the looks nor the price indicate its cup quality. No matter where you buy Arbuckle's ARBUCKLE, or what you pay for it, it's the same old uniform Arbuckle's ARBUCKLE.

If your grocer will not supply, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

It will not only RELIEVE sufferers from LIVER, KIDNEY AND STOMACH TROUBLES, but wards off many OTHER ills.
